

I can ...

Level	Drawing	Present work including a sketchbook	Artists, designers & crafts people	Materials and techniques	Develop and Evaluate
2	Collect information through drawing	Use a sketchbook with clear instructions	Look at and respond to work of others'	Attempt work in a range of set media	Suggest ways to improve own work
3	Start to draw from observation	Use a sketchbook with help	Use a variety of sources to research artists	Understand materials and techniques	Comment on and make improvements to work
4	Draw from observation and use drawing in different ways	Collect information in a sketchbook and present work	Select information from sources and respond to work of others'	Use materials techniques with some control	Comment on own work and improve as it progresses
5	Draw well from observation and use tone to show form	Collect information in a sketchbook and present work in a variety of ways	Select and respond to work and am aware of some different approaches. Comment on the work of others'	Select materials and techniques with good control	Plan, improve and comment on own work
6	Draw confidently from observation using and understanding the formal elements	Creative and imaginative use of sketchbooks working in an independent way	Research and use artists with confidence understanding different functions	Select and use 2D and 3D materials and techniques with confidence	Confidently plan, make comments and changes to work
7	Produce a high standard of observational drawing using and understanding formal elements	Be self-motivated in the way sketchbooks are used well organised working, with imagination and flair	Display a high level of understanding making connections with own work, applying ideas	Display a high level of ability and understanding with materials and techniques	Display a high level of ability in commenting and reviewing work. There is some analysis
8	Reach an excellent standard of observational drawing using and understanding the formal elements in an individual way	Demonstrate excellent use of sketchbook to gather ideas and develop own work. Present work with confidence	Reach an excellent level of understanding making clear links and applying them to own work	Demonstrate excellent ability to use and understand materials and techniques	Demonstrate an excellent level of ability in development, discussion and evaluation